University of Alberta

Department of Educational Psychology

Assistant Professor

Counselling and School Psychology Program

Applications are invited for a tenure-track position at the Assistant Professor level with specific duties in counsellor education in an Educational Psychology context. Candidates must have a Ph.D. or equivalent. Candidates must also have proven clinical skills plus the ability to formulate, design, conduct and report counselling research. Expertise in multivariate technique and longitudinal design would be a distinct asset. Only applicants who have documentable interest in issues pertinent to counselling women will be seriously considered. An eclectic perspective versus a narrow theoretical commitment is desirable. School-related experience and/or a teaching credential or eligibility for same would be an asset. Applicants should possess qualifications in an allied field such as school psychology or developmental psychology. Duties will accent teaching, clinical supervision, course development, and both masters and Ph.D. thesis advisement.

The salary range for Assistant Professor is currently $30,316 to $43,780.

Closing Date: June 1, 1986 or sooner depending upon quality and quantity of applicants.
