

CANADIAN GUIDANCE AND COUNSELLING ASSOCIATION

OBJECTIVES

1. To be alert to the basic philosophies underlying educational, economic, and social goals, especially as they relate to the individual's freedom and responsibility, and to keep in the forefront of developments in human understanding;
2. To foster the interests and endeavours of all those who are engaged in guidance and counselling by promoting contacts amongst diverse persons, agencies, organizations, professional associations, businesses, and institutions participating directly and actively in the work of educational, vocational, and personal guidance and counselling for youth and adults;
3. To provide facilities for an exchange of information relating to guidance and counselling;
4. To work toward the development and coordination of existing guidance and counselling services;
5. To work through community and private agencies and governmental and educational authorities, and collaborate with other professional associations towards improved conditions, resources, research and facilities for guidance and counselling;
6. To provide an official voice for Canada in international associations and conferences relating to guidance and counselling.

SOCIETE CANADIENNE D'ORIENTATION ET DE CONSULTATION OBJECTIFS

1. S'alerter aux principes qui sont à la base des tendances éducationnelles, économiques et sociales, particulièrement lorsque ces manifestations touchent à la liberté et à la responsabilité de l'individu et se maintenir à l'avant-garde des progrès dans le domaine de la compréhension de l'humain.
2. Encourager les efforts et les intérêts de tous ceux qui sont engagés dans l'orientation et le conseil en favorisant les contacts entre les personnes, agences, organismes, associations professionnelles, institutions commerciales, industrielles et autres qui participent directement et activement à l'orientation et à la consultation chez les jeunes et chez les adultes à des fins éducatives, personnelles ou professionnelles.
3. Fournir des moyens d'échange d'information dans les domaines de l'orientation et de la consultation.
4. Travailler à l'expansion et à la coordination des services d'orientation et de consultation existants.
5. Travailler à l'amélioration des conditions, des ressources, de la recherche et des services en orientation et en consultation en collaboration avec les agences communautaires et privées, les autorités gouvernementales et éducationnelles et les associations professionnelles.
6. Fournir au Canada une voix officielle dans les associations et conférences internationales d'orientation et de consultation.

Conferences Niagara Falls, October, 1965

Cité de Québec, Mai, 1967

Edmonton, May 1969

Toronto, May-June, 1971

Winnipeg, June 5-8, 1973

Vancouver, June 4-7, 1975

Return Address:

CGCA/SCOC,
Suite 302,
1000 Yonge Street,
Toronto, Ontario.

TABLE OF CONTENTS • TABLE DES MATIERES

William Brooks and Lawrence Emery	146	College Dropouts: A View from Two Schools
David W. Curtis	152	Counselling in a Manitoba Community College
Roy F. Giroux and John J. Pietrofesa	156	New Directions for Disadvantaged Adults in the Community College
Barbara M. McIntosh, Lolita N. Wilson, and Beatrice G. Lipinski	163	The Extent and Nature of Student Attrition in the First Five Years at Simon Fraser University
Tom Brown	175	Present and Preferred Functions of CGCA Members
Joseph G. Gallo	185	Computer-Assisted Vocational Counselling
Joseph A. Moore and Vello Sermat	194	Relationship between Self- Actualization and Self-Reported Loneliness
L. L. Schmidt	197	Sex-Role Attitudes and Differing Life-Styles of Professional Married Women
Lawrence G. McConnell	207	The Counsellor and His Asexual Client
Roger D. Martin	211	Reduction of Adolescent Drug Abuse Through Post-Hypnotic Cue Association