

ANNOUNCEMENT

ERIC — A Decade of Service to the Educational Community

WHAT IS ERIC?

Educational Resources Information Center funded by the National Institute of Education

Network of 16 clearinghouses, each focusing on a special area of education

Informational storehouse with more than 120,000 documents available through hundreds of libraries and information centers throughout the country

WHAT IS ERIC/CAPS?

Clearinghouse on Counselling and Personnel Services responsible for adding resources in the helping services to the ERIC data base

Information disseminator providing focused materials in the helping services

HOW CAN ERIC/CAPS HELP YOU?

Computer capability to help with YOUR research needs — CAPS can search more than 40 data bases

Annotated bibliographies, monographs and other publications in high interest areas for counsellors and other helping professionals

National workshops on selected topics of current interest to the helping professions

State and local workshops to familiarize participants with ERIC tools and materials

HOW CAN YOU HELP ERIC/CAPS?

You can submit your uncopyrighted and unpublished Studies, Surveys, Program Descriptions, Syntheses, Manuals and Guides to:

ACQUISITIONS DEPARTMENT

ERIC/CAPS

2108 School of Education

University of Michigan

Ann Arbor, MI 48109

U.S.A.